the governor's residence.

During that day troops were landed having completed their duties steamed to a position some miles off shore.

Prisoners Taken to Suva.

Less than a dozen prisoners were taken from among the several hundred German residents, the number including Dr. Schultz, governor, Herr Harz, his private secetary, Commandant Hirsch, controller of the Apia wireless station, Herr Hanson, merchant from Hongkong, and his Samoan servant. These were placed on board one of the smaller cruisers and the return to Fili was accomplished in a very short time.

When the Oceanic steamer Sonoma departed from Pago Pago it was believed that that part of the Pacific was free from the presence of German cruisers.

The smoke from the British vessels was first noted by the German colony at Apia who were led to believe that ships representing the home government were to visit the colony for the purpose of protecting the island pos-
